

Please do not change the Net Neutrality rules to benefit the big companies. Most people are really getting tired about being treated as nothing but resources for big business to exploit and really do not want their government to be just an enabler for more exploitation. I urge you to save the internet for the true benefit of the people of this nation.

F.M. Barker